

ENVIRONMENTAL SPEAKER SERIES:

Residential Renewable Energy Systems:

Harnessing Nature's Energy to Heat, Cool and Power Your Home

PRESENTED BY THE GUN LAKE TRIBE

Guest Speaker Kim Walton is the Program Director at the Michigan Alternative and Renewable Energy Center. She has extensive experience in the field of renewable energy and sustainable community planning.

Thursday March 24, 2016, 6:00 PM

Luella Collins Community Center, 411 126th Ave. Shelbyville, MI
Pancake and sausage dinner with Gun Lake Tribe maple syrup at 6:00 PM - Presentation to follow.

RSVP: Call 269-397-1780 ext. 1250 or todd.williamson@glt-nsn.gov
The Environmental Speaker Series was created to provide more learning opportunities for our community regarding issues related to the health of our natural resources.

